> UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT. The Estate of Madame Jumel. Before Judge Shipm

The case of George Washington sowen vs. Ne resumed yesterday before Judge Ship Witnesses were examined for the purpose of wing, as they state i, that Mme, Jumet had adlitted to them that she had had a son ween she as a very young woman. Much of the testimony, hich is being taken at enormous length, has, apprently, little to do with the real merits of the se, and would bear cutting down very conderaniv. The further hearing of the case will be entered

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT-IN ADMIRALTY.

Important Coll sion Case.

Before Judge Blatchford.

W. Bridge and Others vs. the Steam This was a livel brought to recover the of the bark Merrimac, which was sunk by a with the steamship Aleppo on the 20th of 1870, a few miles outside of Boston harbor The Merrimac was on her way from Montevideo to Boston, with a cargo of wool, and on the morning of the 2-th of April was off Boston harour, in a heavy fog; at the same time the wind had died down to a dead caim. The Aleppo was outward bound: and it is alleged, on the part of her officers and crew, that he was going at hair speed. The proof is that the foy norn on the bark and the waistle on the steamer were blown at short intervals; that each was heard by the other: that subsequently the seamship came in signt of the bark, and that a colision followed, the seamer running head on to the port side of the bark, cutting her nearly haif through. The bark runk in about twelve minutes after the collision. The crew of the berrunce jumped on board the Aleppo and were taken on to Livern of. The question involved is whether the steamer was going at too high a rate of speed, considering the thickness of the loc. The case was not concluded.

For the lineliants, townsend & Scudder and I. L. Dodge; for the claimant, b. D. Lord. The Merrimac was on her way from Montevideo to

SUPREME C. URT-CHAMBERS.

High-Toned Horse Racing at Country Fairs

John Smith vs. John R. Bagley.-Agricultural orse trots, as Josn Billings calls horse races at country fairs, or trials of speed, the more harm-less designation applied to them, do not always, it appears, terminate attogether amicably. A case in point came up yester by in this Court. At an agricultural fair head at Carskill, Smith and Bagley, the parties to the above entitled action, arranged to try the speed of their respective horses. As it would not up to be on the result they whipped the devil around the slump by the usual method adopted on such occasions to give a high moral tone to the adair. The money was contribuled and away adopted on such occasions to give a high moral tone to the analy, the money was contributed and away started the norses. Smills claims, however, that Bagicy went away with the money without having the right to do so, and Bagicy claims that the judges in deciaring Smith's horse the victor saled to do the square thing. But Smith is bound to get the money in he can and hence crought suit to recover the money in dispute aim unting to $250. He wants the suit, however, brought in Catskit and not here, and so the ca-e came up yesterday on a motion to change the place of trial. The Court heard the argument and then reserved its decision. The controvers; Over the Fenian Fund.

John Lawiers vs. John O'Mahoney .- This old suit which has been going through a lively legal process battledore and shuttlecock for the past four years seems to be endowed with wonderful vitality. The amount of money which has given rise to this proamount of money which has given rise to this prolonged hitgious quarrel is some $20,000. The matter came up yescerday on a motion to open a desault taken at the General Term. br. H. C.
Talmadge arged with eloquent zeal the motion,
which Mr. A. R. Rice opposed with like earnest esort. The Judge instence with martellous patience to the long story, the inception of the Fenian lundraising movement in this country, the giving of bils of exonange by Angust Belmoat on the Rothschilds. of London; the trial and conviction of the Fenian leaders at Duoin, the appointment of a receiver of the fund, the pending legal fight for the possession of the money, and last, not least, to the new evidence proposed to be gleaned from the partioned Fenians now in this country. Mr. Talmadge chaims that unlair advantage has been taken of him, am asks for a new trial. Mr. Rice contends that there has been no unfair advantage, and that the suit should not be allowed to progress further. The Court took the pipers.

The Injunction Against Tammany. This matter, of which there have already been two postponements, was set down for argument yester-day. Unavoidable absence of one of the leading counsel was urger as an excuse for another post-ponement. The Judge accordingly put of the case till next Friday.
